

Lenten Beholdings with Julian of Norwich

Our Good Lord showed to me a spiritual sight of his homely loving.
I saw that he is everything that is good and comfortable for us.
He is our clothing who for love, wraps us, embraces us, enfolds and beclothes us in tender love and will never leave us.
A Showing of Love, 5.

Guided by the showings of Julian of Norwich these Lenten communion consciousness meditations, invite participants into the gentle, enveloping silence of contemplation. They arise from the ground of silence and sing of Love's desire for us to behold the love expressed in the cross and be drawn into the "great oneing between God and us".
